What's new in Riddle Of The Sphinx™ (DLC) Moonlight Exploration:

Walkthrough This walkthrough focuses on the dark alleys and the murder mystery. It has hints for the entire main story, from the beginning of The Earth to the very end of the Odyssey. In general, it'll make sense once we get into the story but it won't be entirely necessary to walk you through at first. The walkthrough is divided into sections with stage names. Once you've read through those, the next section in the list of pages will explain the specific contents, such as completing riddles or finding a clue. All items required for the quest can be found on or around Elandas Sanctuary. It's recommended to have the following things available, but they aren't actually needed for the quests: No Echo of the Past, Tal Zim's Red Book, your faithful Nitro Driver and Pawn Talk, unless there are other objects you're using it to research that also count. Also have a Potion of Telepathy, Miracles of Pilgrammity, and Damage Resistance Capsule. The first section is divided into three pages of alleys. Instead of reading it directly, read by chapters below. Wait! Getting lost in Elandas is not good! If you get lost easily and hear ourrvoices calling your name, you're following the wrong path or you're not close enough to an exit. Climb down and get to one of the other street exits and try again. Through a Magical portal While you're searching for Annele, you find that she's been teleported to the Nest of the Lighthouse. You need to follow some clues in the house and then activate a portal to get there. The next section is The Betrayed Inn. Have Damage Resistance Capsule on you or else a ticket out of Elandas will stop working unless you've repaired it. You'll want to find out who Thales is if he's the person running the inn. At the bar, talk to Wyld, and he'll tell you that it's Theobald, Thales' brother. Thales is standing at the end of the bar. Talk to him and he'll call you up to talk. You'll get a conversation prompt to run. He tells you he needs to give access to the inn to Annele so he can avenge the betrayal of the village. Annele teleports from inside the hotel and you get three mysteries in one message: A Christmas present
